All year round, boats connect Lucerne and Brunnen with Treib, the gateway to Seelisberg. From Lucerne, enjoy a scenic two-hour cruise across Lake Lucerne's fjord-like landscape, with its dramatic cliffs and crystal-clear waters. At Treib, the historic restaurant at the boat station offers a taste of the region's past, before the nostalgic red funicular carries you up to Seelisberg.

At the top, discover the enchanting mountain village perched on a sunny plateau opposite Brunnen. Stroll through the charming streets, take in the breathtaking views of Lake Lucerne, and visit the historic Rütli meadow – the birthplace of Switzerland in 1291.
